The following conditions for the sale and Plymouth Code Chapter 5.09 apply to Garage, Estate & Rummage Sales.

A. Sale permit required.

Before any garage sale, rummage sale or estate sale shall be conducted, the person conducting the same shall file a written application for a permit with the City Clerk, which shall set forth:

1. The name and address of the applicant, and the names and addresses of any persons owning an interest in the property to be sold, if different from the applicant, and an indication of the property owned by person other than the applicant;
2. The location of the proposed sale;
3. The date or dates during which the proposed sale is to be conducted;
4. An affidavit or declaration under the penalty of perjury that the person or persons conducting the sale is or are the owners of the property offered for sale, that the property has not been acquired or assigned to the applicant or applicants for the purpose of resale and the number of previous sale that have been conducted by the applicant or on the premises within the twelve-month period immediately prior to the date of the application.

B. Days and hours of sales.

No permit shall be approved and no sale shall be conducted for more than three consecutive days. The sale shall not be conducted before 9:00 am. or after 6:00 pm. on the permitted days.

C. Signs.

Signs advertising or publicizing garage, rummage or estate sales shall not exceed four square feet in area. No garage sale sign shall be placed on any utility pole or street sign, or on public property. Sale signs shall be erected not more than two days prior to the sale and shall be removed not later than two days after such sale.

D. Limit on permits.

No more than four permits shall be issued to the same person or for the same premises within any twelve-month period. No permit shall be transferable to another person or to another premises. Issuance of a permit shall not relieve the permittee from the responsibilities for obtaining such other permits and licenses as may be required by the City, county or state.

E. Garage Sales

1. Garage sales are sales conducted by individuals in their homes, for the purpose of disposing of personal property no longer needed by the individual.
2. Garage sales may at times be conducted by a combination of residents at a single location: provided all material or goods sold are the personal property of one of the persons conducting the sale, acquired by that person prior to resale without the intent to resell.

F. Estate Sales

1. Estate sales are sales of personal property and goods from the estate of a deceased person, sold from the residence of that deceased person.

2. Estate sales may be held only in structures which were uses as bona fide residences of the decedents whose property is to be disposed of in the estate sale. Application for a permit shall be accompanied by an inventory of all property to be offered for sale, certified to be the property of the estate.

G. Rummage Sales

1. Rummage sales are sales conducted by groups of individuals or nonprofit organizations to raise funds for charitable purposes through the sale of donated articles of clothing, art objects, household appliances and utensils, and the like, either new or used.

2. Rummage sales may be held only in the commercial districts or in structures in the residential district of nonresidential character, such as churches and schools.

H. Nonprofit Organization

1. Nonprofit organization shall include, but not be limited to, fraternal organizations, hobby societies, educational societies, historical societies, museums, hospital auxiliary groups, churches, church auxiliary organizations, student groups, and parent-teacher organizations who regularly conduct activities in the City.

I. Penalty.

The violation of Plymouth Code Chapter 5.09 is an infraction and shall be punishable by: (1) a fine not exceeding fifty dollars for a first violation; (2) a fine not exceeding one hundred dollars for a second violation within one year; (3) a fine not exceeding two hundred fifty dollars for each additional violation within one year.

I understand the above rules and regulations of Plymouth Municipal Code Chapter 5.09 explained prior to issuance of sales permit.
